The Preparatory is a division of the Peabody Institute of The Johns Hopkins University

The Preparatory has a two-fold mission. It offers gifted children and adolescents the opportunity to realize their highest potential as leaders of the next generation of performing artists. In addition, it provides an education in music and dance to all members of the community who desire it, regardless of age, professional intention, or previous training. This dual mission is based upon the notion that every individual has the capacity for artistic expression at some appropriate level of understanding and skill.

PEABODY PREPARATORY

GUITAR DEPARTMENT 2007-2008

THE PEABODY PREPARATORY
OF THE JOHNS HOPKINS UNIVERSITY

The Peabody Institute of the Johns Hopkins University

The Peabody Institute is comprised of the Conservatory and the Preparatory, sharing facilities in the historical center of Baltimore. The Institute offers the resources and opportunities necessary for the complete development of its music and dance students in keeping with the philosophy of its founder George Peabody and the community spirit of the Preparatory's founder May Garrettson Evans.

The Peabody Preparatory

As a proud division of the Institute, the Preparatory boasts students who have won acclaim in local and national performances and competitions. Our renowned Preparatory faculty influences the national arena through their performances, speaking engagements, teacher training, master class direction and competition adjudication. Other schools have adopted our program models and our outreach program has garnered national recognition and respect. Our strong reputation has attracted the interest of international visitors and students in order to seek their arts education at the Preparatory.

Guitar Program

Scott Matejicka, Department Chair

The Guitar Department offers private instruction in classical, steel string and jazz guitar for students beginning at age 9 through adults. Older students may be interested in our Beginner Guitar and Introduction to Guitar classes. Group classes and ensembles in all guitar styles are available during the Fall and Spring semesters for children and adults of all levels of musical experience and ability. Students wishing to explore contemporary repertoire may be interested in our Jazz Ensemble, open to guitarists. Guitar history and theoretical studies are also offered during the Summer Session. More information about the Guitar program is available on the website at www.peabody.jhu.edu/prepguitar. Let our friendly faculty and staff assist you in finding the most appropriate type of instruction for your needs.

Individual Instruction

Private lessons are available at our Baltimore main, Annapolis, Towson and Howard County campuses for students of any experience level, from beginner through advanced levels of study for both children and adults. Students enrolling in individual instruction are required to have a practice instrument available. A placement interview is required for all new students. Contact Scott Matejicka, Department Chair at PeabodyPrepGuitar@jhu.edu or call 410-659-8100 ext. 1374 for a placement interview.

Lessons are scheduled on an individual basis and are contingent upon teacher availability. Students enrolled in private lessons will have opportunities to participate in recitals, repertoire and master classes, either one of our music certificate programs and free admission to most Institute concerts.
